

1. Kurohiko: age appears early twenties
 - a. Kurohiko is extremely handsome, a dark prince type. He has long, waist length raven hair, face framing fringe, and is deathly pale like the ten Brinkens.
 - b. He is actually closer to death than any other sibling because he slipped back into death as he was being born. Friedhelm had to pull his soul back and hold it long enough for him to be born (this can happen in the ten Brinken family due to their status as a death walking family. His mother being the Alraune made this even more likely for she is liminal and now he is even more so.)
 - c. Kurohiko has strong necromantic abilities like leora and she has been keeping an eye on him because of it.
 - d. Kurohiko is logical, cautious, analytical, and lethal. He has more of Sukuna's personality but dresses it up with Friedhelm's traits. He looks more like a child between Sukuna and Friedhelm than Sukuna and Leora.
 - e. He has heterochromia: one crimson eye like sukuna and one blue like Leora's.
 - f. He is extremely close to Mizuki (his brother) and respects Tsukihiko deeply.
 - g. He is the worst of the mama's boys and has even gotten into fights with Sukuna over her attention and affection. He must be near her in any room they share. He listens to her like law. He follows her instructions. He only yields to her.
 - h. Sukuna and Kurohiko butt heads because they are both trying to monopolize Leora's attention and thus, Kurohiko often leaves the estate for extended periods of time to breathe.
 - i. Kurohiko often goes to Tsukihiko's estate when injured because he doesn't want to upset mama (leora)
 - j. He calls her mama but sometimes, very rarely, he calls her mutti.
 - k. He is NOW married to Kiyomi and has adopted her younger brother (now 8) Sieg as his son. She is now known as his Okasan and Kurohiko is his Otosan.
 - l. He was conceived before Leora was kidnapped for three months by Wulf. Because of this, Sukuna momentarily questioned his paternity. When he asked Leora if she was touched, she said no. He believed her. This is a critical moment in their relationship because:
 - i. Any other man wouldn't have believed her
 - ii. Later, Sukuna admits he thought about it and even if it had not been biologically his child it was her child and therefore, he would accept it no matter what. A part of her is his because he see Leora as "his."
 - iii. If he had doubted her, he tells the children eventually that he would have not been able to live with it or live it down when he saw kurohiko's eye
 - iv. Sukuna admits he never wanted the children to know because he didn't want Kurohiko to think he didn't love him or questioned him as his son.
