

1. Tsukihiko: heir, oldest, named by Sukuna because Tsukihiko reminded him of the first time he saw Leora in the shrine under moonlight, chose the name because he is like a moon prince come from a moon goddess. He looks like his uncle Friedhelm. He has a serene, peaceful, calm, responsible, mediator type personality on the surface but make no mistake, he is Sukuna's son and can be lethal. He is cunning. He is highly intelligent. As he progresses, he becomes Sukuna improved in emotional ways and that earns him the distinction of maybe being more dangerous than his father. Age: appears to be mid to late 20s.
 - a. Traumatic birth
 - b. Left Sukuna's estate to prove he could
 - c. Enjoys painting, crafts, weaving, and wood working like Friedhelm
 - d. Is Friedhelm's double in appearance. Grey eyes, long, waist length white hair that has a silver sheen making him just as ethereal and otherworldly with a slight difference. He is very fit, lean, muscular, and tall. His hands appear delicate but feel rough.
 - e. Has a very special bond with Friedhelm and has since he came to the estate
 - f. Tsukihiko was able to lead them into death to help bring fragments of Friedhelm back together and did so when he was only 5.
 - g. Has never feared Sukuna, only loved him and wanted his approval. He always refers to him as Otosan.
 - h. He loves Leora and is a mama's boy. He always calls her mama.
 - i. He is refined, charming, can appear delicate at times but he is more silk over steel.
 - j. He has two white fox shinigami that were once Friedhelms until Friedhelm died. Then they no longer could stay attached and moved on to Tsukihiko. Even with Friedhelm back, they stay with Tsukihiko and listen only to him.
 - k. Sukuna is currently trying to strengthen his bond with Tsukihiko so he does not leave again.
 - l. Has just been revealed to be the Waker in the death system.
 - m. Performed the devouring vow with Chōbei
 - n. Is okay with Chōbei's relationship with his mama (Leora) because of a conversation he had with Friedhelm (his beloved uncle) about a similar relationship he has with his Otōsan (Sukuna)
 - o. Chōbei makes sure Tsukihiko never doubts he is his number 1 priority
 - p. Tsukihiko knows Chōbei would end the relationship with Leora if he asked without question.
 - q. After the crisis at the estate, Tsukihiko proved himself to be just as much Sukuna's son as he his Leora's
 - r. He took control when Sukuna shut down after thinking Leora was dead
 - s. He baptized guards, created wards, and fought Todkriegers
 - t. Most importantly, he proved to Sukuna he could be strategic and unemotional

- u. Sukuna was most affected when Tsukihiko commanded Chobei to take Kohaku to a secret room Friedhelm had and stay there instead of heading to Kaguya's wing where he had sent the rest of the standing guards to protect her.
 - i. Kaguya had just given birth and was the most vulnerable of the siblings. However, she was also the likely next target. Sukuna understood that Tsukhiko would protect his sister but he wouldn't send his husband and son there and risk their lives for the sake of family comfort.
 - ii. It is during this crisis Ryo names Tsukihiko Fox Father and men decide to commit themselves to his service for the rest of their mortal lives.

Now, Sukuna relies the most on Tsukhiko out of all the children. He is the heir, the leader of the Moon Militia, The Fox Father, the inheritor of The Book of Death, and perhaps the inheritor of the Ten Brinken legacy (to be determined).
